dered them to go to Lewiston, Friday night. Gen. Sully will go to Lewiston this boat.

McDowell, Maj. Gen.
June 19, 1900. Gen.
H. H. H. Washington: The following letter from Howard at Lapwal, to his superior at the department headquarters, has just been received:
"I rather gloomy news from the frontiers. Captain Ferry has the enemy, about 200 strong, well posted, and was are expected to receive a message from within five minutes. The Indians are gradually increasing in numbers from other tribes. The improvement indicates a combination of all the disaffected Indians. Probably number 1,000 or 1,500. Two companies of infantry and twenty-five cavalrymen. Lewis on this morning. Have sent to Lewiston every available man in the department except at Forts and Boise, and started all the men at Harney for Boise except a guard. They may receive oron turning them in this, the direction. Lewiston will be a depot for the present. The master commissary, Ordnance officials will act accordingly.

 Acting upon the most positive instruction. I wish these movements made in the shortest possible time.
 Inform Gen. McDowell and ask him to send a staff officer to meet his troops, who should, in my opinion, be ready to move, but just in case I depend on my success against the band, 75 miles eastward from here, shall proceed against the Indian collecting or threatening on city citizens have been murdered. I shall not feed the rebels, but I had to start a campaign to stop the murder of women and keep the attention of the world on Joseph's hand, while I concentrate my troops.

HOWARD.

Commanding the department of Colorado.

McDowell, in reply, sent the following telegram to Gen. McDowell:

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, WASHINGTON.

and I trust that the first result of the disaster to the two commander Captain Kerry will prove to be, and that the combination of the disaffected Indians is not as great as reported. Still, we must be on our guard and overcome it, be it what it may. General Howard is on the way and can ascertain the exact condition of affairs. He will be able to furnish you with all the information you desire. I can first support him by the troops available and call for reinforcements after you have used them to your command. One of the great number of Indian scouts will be sent to your division, purely to

W. T. SHERMAN, General.
Secretary of War this morning received the following telegram from Brayman, of Idaho Territory:
"BOISE CITY, IDAHO.

"and provision volunteers at the "charge. Immediate action
"ry."
M. BRAYMAN,

Governor: The secretary replied that he had no authority to authorize the purchase, and that provision is at government expense, but Howard had been fully informed and clothed with all the authority the department can confer, and that the British arms and ammunition provided by Gen. Sherman were the following to General Howard:

COMMISSIONER OF THE ARMY,

HILTON AND THE JEWS.

What Seligman's Brothers Say About the Trouble.

New York, June 21.—The exclusion of Joseph Seligman from the Grand Union hotel, Saratoga, on the ground of his being a Jew, continues to excite great public interest, and is the topic of conversation among citizens of all

When questioned this morning in regard to the proposed public meeting on the subject, said his understanding some of the gentlemen were taking steps to call a meeting of that character, but he had no definite information on the matter. He thought it very unlikely that any measures would be taken to institute legal proceedings against Judge Hilton under the civil rights act. What he wished impressed on the public was the fact that this was not a personal controversy between his brother and Judge Hilton. His brother was excited from the Grand Union hotel on the Judge Hilton was in his whole-sore as usual this morning, and, what not usual, was surrounded by reporters. He gave them five minutes and said: "What I have done I have done in what I conceived to be my right in the protection of the interest of the property in my charge. There is a class of people whom I will not have in the hotel, and I have the right to say so. I don't see how this can res the general public. Every respectable hotel has the right to exercise discrimination in accepting guests, and have simply exercised my judgment that way. So far as the damage to business is concerned, we have received formidable offers to ruin. A w accounts, not at present exceeding $500 in total value, have been ordered, and we have obeyed orders with no objection so far as closed, leaving the account kept clear. ator Johnson was yesterday sentenced to the parish prison for ten days and a fifty dollar fine for refusing to produce certain books called for and to answer certain questions as to their contents, propounded by the grand jury. Johnson says some of the missing documents were destroyed and others taken away when they were expecting attack by the white league in January last. In a petition to the court, Johnson says he could not answer questions for fear of criminalizing himself.

Johnson's counsel contended that many questions involved in this case were now in controversy.
